CAROLINE BONNE MÜLLER

Prior to becoming a professional illustrator, Caroline Bonne Muller studied Fashion Design in Amsterdam. She worked as a fashion designer for 14 years. On the birth of her own family, she couldn't stop buying beautifully illustrated picture books. This planted the seed of wishing to illustrate her own books. Her dream became reality when Quarto published her first picture book in 2020 (Portrait of an Artist – Claude Monet).

Caroline's work is painted in acrylics combined with watercolour pencils. Her artwork is all hand-painted at a relatively large scale on A3 pages. This enables her to achieve a generous amount of detail. She is highly proficient at putting illustrations into design repeats when needed.

An artistic illustration of a bride and groom in a garden. The bride, on the left, has dark hair and is wearing a white dress with a blue bow. The groom, on the right, has a beard and is wearing a dark suit. They are surrounded by various flowers, including orange and blue blooms. A central white box with a red border contains the word "LICENSED".

Drawing and painting helped Beatrix feel a little better, but the city was so grey and gloomy.

When she visited the countryside, it was easier to fill the pages of her sketchbook with flowers, mushrooms and colourful creatures. But memories of Benjamin still hopped through her head.
