Maja Lindberg describes her own work as colourful with a hint of dark in it. Inspired by fairy tales, dreams, and childhood memories. Often a little melancholic with a dreamy touch. Maja creates beautiful and visually engaging illustrations which often hold some mystery.

The background is a collage. On the left, a detailed illustration of a forest with bare trees and several yellow and blue birdhouses. Small orange birds are perched on the branches. On the right, a hand holds a white stylus, drawing on a tablet. The tablet screen shows a blue background with yellow fish and purple flowers. In the center, a white rounded rectangle with a dark green border contains the word "PROCESS" in dark green capital letters.
